

Dear [Manager's Name],

There's an upcoming event on AI infrastructure that I believe would be beneficial for myself [and X from our team] to attend.

The AI Infra Summit 2025 takes place September 9-11th, in person at the Santa Clara Convention Center. This 3,500-attendee summit is the leading event focused on full stack infrastructure optimization for engineers, architects, and AI/ML practitioners from like entire AI infrastructure eco-system.

The benefits of attending this conference include:

- A unique opportunity to mix with leading experts from across the entire full stack AI infrastructure eco-system and cross-industry end users. There are 200+ speakers across the keynotes, and 4 tracks.
- Providing our team with invaluable insights into emerging AI infrastructure trends and cutting-edge technologies. Diamond Partners include AWS and Google.
- Learning best practices and actionable results from leading enterprise end users and infrastructure providers we can replicate internally. 35% of the audience are customers from industries including automotive, finance, retail, entertainment and pharma.

The quality of content at the event is world leading with keynote speakers including VP & GM, Compute and AI Infrastructure from Google, VP of SageMaker AI from AWS, VP Engineering from Meta, SVP, Enterprise Business Services from Walmart, Chief AI and Analytics Officer from Pfizer and CISO & SVP Technology from CVS Health.

With technical tracks on Hardware & Systems, Edge Infra, AI Data Centers, & Enterprise AI, as well as numerous hands-on workshops, a demo stage for new product pitches, and over 100 infrastructure partners exhibiting on the show floor, you'll be sure to connect with innovators, leaders and peers.

I've linked the event website here for more information and let me know a convenient time to discuss this opportunity further for our team.

Kind regards,
